AT THE DAVIS TONIGHT.

Dorothy Donnelly in Maria Roza.

Dorothy Donnelly, who will be recalled by local playgoars for her fine work in the name part of Madame X, is coming to the Davis theater tonight, in that great drama of Angel Guimera's, Maria Rosa, which has been the sensation of continental Europe and the Latin Americas wherever it has been produced. The play itself is much stronger, than the French melodrama in which Miss Donnelly created the leading role in this country, and although dramatic and intense to the extreme, abounds in delicious comedy.

The standing features of the book are fully present, as usual—the election returns, the population tables, the statistics of cities, of crops, of collegas, of industries, of churches, of everything that exists and grows. There are the expected pages of sporting records and the facts of a year are lists of trusts and of millionaires and the condensed family trees of distinguished Americans. There are the Constitution, the Declaration of Independence and the platforms of political parties. There are a year's chronology and a year's necrology, besides the time tables of great events Dorothy Donnelly in Maria Rosa. extreme, abounds in delicious comedy.

The Boston critics all agreed that few playwrights had so deftly and closely woven the dramatic and the humorous sides of life as has the great

The feature photoplay on this bill is a three reel drama called The Missing Woman, a story of mistaken identity. Good emotional acting is done by the lady who takes the leading role, and she plays two parts all throughout the picture. The Harvest of Sin is the title of a thrilling K. B. western drama. Mrs. Brown's Burglar is a funny Majestic comedy. Mutt and Jeff in Panama Coming to Davis Theater. Even more auspiciously than either its first or stoond season, did Bud Fisher's happy thought character con-ception, Must and Jeff, open its third ception, Must and Jeff, open its third successive season as a musical comedy offering under Gus Hill's direction. With an entire new production, from scenery to music, Mutt and Jeff have Wilderness With God.

In Panama is the title of the new vehicle selected to lead our heroes to fame and fortune in the land of the "big ditch." From its premier presentation, they have played to absolute capacity busihave played to absolute capacity busi-ness during the three seasons it has been before the public. The success of Mutt and Jeff is not alone un-precedented, but almost unbellevable. It is not a whit of an exaggeration to proceasin Gus Hill's cartoon play the most remarkable play in theatrical history. The play has yielded its owner an actual profit of a half million dollars in two seasons of thirty weeks each. Dividing this equally among the five separate and distinct companies which have toured the United States and Canada, their profits have averaged more than $1,500 per week each. The artistic success of Mutt and Jeff as an offering and the extent in which it has pleased its patrons must be guaged according to these figures, as such extraordinary financial results. such extraordinary financial results could not have been possible without correspondingly extraordinary merit to the attraction. As no musical comed) since the inception of entertainment of that character has ever before equalled this record, we dare proclaim Muttand

It's coming to the Davis theater Wednesday, Jan. 14, matinee and even-ing, if you've seen Mutt and Jeff before se it again by all means; there's a new laugh to every minute from start to finish. COLONIAL THEATER.

The Man Who Vanishod, Carlyle Blackwell in Two Reel Feature.

One of those stupendous spectacles or which the Kalem cast is famous is the feature at the Colonial today, it being entitled The Man Who Vanished. being entitled The Man Who Vanished. This story tells of a young heir, Carlyle Blackwell, who has a conniving aunt and uncle, and who stop at nothing in their effort to dispose of this young man, so that they will receive the bequest in his absence. That he disappears in a most mysterious yet simple manner is clearly told in the simple manner is clearly told in the big picture, also how he finally materi-alizes and finds his sweetheart locked in the family steel vault, and how the doors have to be blown off in order to save her from suffocation. It is a won-derful story with an immense cast and derful story with an immense cast, and scens in California. Other fine pictures for today are The Haunted Bedroom, Edison; The Girl at the Lunch Counter, Vitagraph, and Physical Culture at Quarter Circle V Bar Ranch. This is a roaring wastern counter. NEXT WEEK AT THE AUDITORIUM The first three days of next week the banner show of the season will be on hand at this popular theater, when Gilbert and Sullivan's production, H. M. S. Pinafore, will be revived by Hap Ward's invenile Pinafore Kiddies. This is a talented organization of boys and girls of unusual merit who present the opera in tabloid form. Those who have been entertained in vears past by the been entertained in years past by the lilting melodies of the Plinafore score by men and women who are now stars, should visit the Auditorium next week and enjoy the interpretation rendered by these juvenile performers.

All of the popular melodies have been retained, and in conjunction with the opera an olio is given in which many up-to-date features are present-ed, including a complete ministrel first part. The production compares favor-ably with any Broadway musical suc-cess. Costumes and scenery are beau-tiful, comedians exceptionally clever, with a fine singing chorus of all trained voices. Beyond a doubt this is the greatest aggregation of juvenile performers before the public today.

The germs of catarrh have you in their lower; they are continually irritating the mucous membrane of your nose and throat.

If you do not kill the loathsome germs of catarrh their desperate assaults will in time rob your brain of its brilliancy and activity, and leave you not only a physical, but a mental wreck.
